

Harold D. Kalman

Harold D. Kalman, Ph.D., CAHP, is principal of Commonwealth's Vancouver office. He is a specialist in planning for heritage and cultural resources. Raised in Montreal, he received his education at Princeton University and had additional training in conservation at Cornell University (USA) and York University (UK). He taught at the University of British Columbia before entering private practice in 1975. He has served on the Boards of the Heritage Canada Foundation, ICOMOS Canada, and Heritage BC, and as Chair of the Vancouver Heritage Commission. He was the founding president of the Canadian Association of Heritage Professionals and the BC Association of Heritage Professionals. He has directed or participated in consulting projects across Canada and in China, Hong Kong, the US, the Caribbean, and South America. Kalman is the author (or co-author) of many standard texts on architectural history and conservation, including A History of Canadian Architecture (winner of an award from the Canadian Historical Association), Exploring Vancouver, Exploring Ottawa, Reviving Main Street, Principles of Heritage Conservation, The Evaluation of Historic Buildings, The Sensible Rehabilitation of Older Houses, Encore: Recycling Public Buildings for the Arts, and Pioneer Churches. He teaches architectural conservation at the University of Hong Kong (where he holds the rank of Honorary Professor) and the University of Victoria. He received the BC Heritage Award for 2006.