

Tami Fur

Tami Fur is the Manager, Brownfield Implementation for the British Columbia Ministry of Agriculture and Lands. Among her responsibilities is management of the BC Brownfield Renewal Funding Program. Tami holds a degree in Natural Resource Science from Thompson Rivers University. Tami has worked for both private and public sector organizations focussing on Crown Land development and management.